(Rulings as Chairman of Committee)

Supply

Public Education in England and Wales

The Chairman, calling the hon. Member to order, said the question of warning schools was a matter of policy, and did not apply to the specific Vote before the Committee, and said the ruling he had just given was based on a ruling of the late Chairman of Committees in the last Parliament applicable to Supplementary Estimates. It had been referred to by the Committee on Procedure in their Report (1888), and had now become the law of Parliament Mar 8 [31] 657

The Chairman ruled that the discussion would be out of Order Mar 8, 657

London University (Supplementary)

Some of the remarks were a little wide of the particular item in the Vote, and which does not refer to new buildings Mar 8, 662

Slave Trade Suppression (Supplementary)

The hon. Member must confine himself to matters relevant to the Vote Mar 8, 665

Slave Trade in Zanzibar and Pemba

The Chairman said the hon. Member for Penrith would not be in order to discuss the whole question of railways. He understood the hon. Member to refer to the question only incidentally Mar 8, 674

Naval Works Bill

The Chairman said the procedure was governed and limited by the Resolution which had already passed the House May 28 [34] 525

The Chairman said he had nothing to add to what he had already stated May 28, 526

Farm Servants (Scotland) Bill

The Chairman said he was quite clear upon the point. Objection having been taken in the manner it had been, it was the duty of the Chairman to leave the Chair June 13, 1144

Foreign Office

An hon. Member asked whether he could discuss certain questions on the Vote, and he was answered in the negative Mar 5 [31] 429

No discussion can be allowed on a ruling Mar 5, 430

Houses of Parliament

The discussion must be confined to the points before the Committee Mar 5, 418

An hon. Member was called to order Mar 5, 424

The Chairman said that he could not allow any discussion on a ruling given Mar 5, 430

Mercantile Marine Fund

The Vote only had reference to lighthouses Mar 5, 432

The Vote has nothing to do with the Mercantile Marine Fund Act Mar 5, 434

Miscellaneous Legal Expenses

Balfour (Jabez Spencer)—An hon. Member was asked whether he moved the reduction or not Mar 5, 456

The hon. Member's argument did not apply Mar 7, 591

Relief of Distress in Ireland

The hon. Member was going further than the lines indicated; the discussion must be confined to the Vote Mar 7, 609

County Courts

The Chairman thought a Supplementary Vote merely for paying a small amount, in excess of the amount already provided, that this matter ought not to be raised. The general question should be raised on the main, and not on the supplemental, Estimates Mar 7, 617

Scotch Law Charges

The Chairman thought the hon. and learned Member need not assume that imputations had been made; and though he did not wish to interrupt him, was obliged to point out that he must confine himself to the question before the Committee Mar 7, 630

Public Education in England and Wales

The Chairman said the policy and action of the Administration were not under discussion, and the Supplementary Estimate was due to an under-estimate of average attendance, and of the rate of grant payable thereon Mar 7, 639

The Chairman thought there was a broad distinction between an Ordinary and a Supplementary Estimate. As a rule, unless a Supplementary Estimate was of an extraordinary or excessive character, the general discussion of policy should be confined to the first and main Vote. The present Supplementary Estimate was not of such a character, and accordingly it seemed to him a general discussion of policy would be entirely out of order Mar 7, 643

Miscellaneous Rulings—Mar 5 [31] 418, 424, 429, 430, 456; Mar 7, 591, 627, 638, 640, 641, 644

Navy Estimates: £4,133,500 for Wages

I must call the hon. Gentleman's attention to the fact that he is getting rather away from the Vote. He appears now to be discussing Colonial policy Mar 18 [31] 1327

I must call the hon. Gentleman's attention to the fact that he is getting very far away from the Estimate now under discussion, and I must ask him to confine himself more closely to the subject-matter of the Vote, and warn him to be careful Mar 18, 1328

The hon. Member is not entitled to discuss any matter except that which arises out of the Vote at the present time Mar 18, 1332

The remarks of the hon. Gentleman would come better on the Fishery Vote Mar 18, 1335

The hon. Member is now dealing with a specific grievance. The object in moving the reduction was to deal with the general question of the Navy; and the hon. Member's remarks would be more applicable when the specific Vote which he challenges comes before the House Mar 18, 1235

Those questions would more properly come up on other Votes—the first on the Works Vote and the second on the Vote for Matériel Mar 18, 1336

You are now discussing an Amendment moved by the hon. Baronet the Member for Cockermouth. It is quite possible that everything hon. Members desire to urge may be in order on the General Vote, but at present the discussion must be restricted to the Amendment Mar 18, 1337

If the hon. Member will turn to Vote 7 of the Navy Estimates, he will find that the pay for the Naval Reserve is taken under that Vote, and therefore, any questions he wishes to raise he must raise when Vote 7 is reached, and not before Mar 18, 1342

Temporary Commissions—Secondary Education

If the hon. Member desires to discuss it, he must confine himself strictly to the composition of the Commission, and must be careful not to deal with the general question of Secondary Education, which would be quite out of Order on this Vote Mar 19 [31] 1436

It is perfectly clear that, when the question has been once put in regard to a particular subject, the discussion must be confined to that particular subject Mar 19, 1437

Post Office Nominations

The Motion could not now be amended. The only course was to withdraw the Resolution, as amended, and move it in the altered form Feb 19, 1134

Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Bill

I must call the hon. Member's attention to the fact that he is not entitled to discuss the Bill June 18 [34] 1392

Miscellaneous Rulings—Feb 18 [30] 971; Feb 19, 1071, 1074, 1179

(Rulings as Chairman of Committees)

Navy Estimates

The Chairman pointed out that, when the Annual Loan Bill came on, the hon. Member would be able to discuss the financial aspect Mar 18 [31] 1281

The general question of Naval Expenditure must not be entered upon, except so far as the Vote is concerned Mar 18, 1287, 1288

The Chairman considered that the hon. Member was going beyond the particular Vote, and touching upon matters germane to general discussion Mar 18, 1289

The Chairman said that the hon. Member was travelling beyond the limits of the Vote before the Committee Mar 18, 1292

The Chairman considered that no Question about the "Victoria" arose on the Vote Mar 18, 1319

The reason that general discussion is permissible is that Vote 1 concerns the Manning of the Navy, and it is not in order to discuss a matter which is not connected with the subject of the Vote Mar 18, 1320

Supply—£4,439,258, Vote on Account

The Chairman, in answer to a question on a point of Order, said, that he was about to call attention to the fact that this was a little irregular, and that the Amendt. had better be withdrawn for the present Mar 28 [32] 364

The Chairman did not consider the hon. Member out of Order, but thought that it would be more convenient to keep the questions of Madagascar and Egypt and the Upper Nile distinct Mar 28, 400

Army (Annual) Bill

The Chairman asked whether the hon. Member was about to move an Amendt. At present there was no question before the House. The hon. Member if he wishes to ask a question must do so on the Motion that the clause stand part of the Bill Mar 28, 435

The Chairman ruled certain Amendts. out of Order Mar 28, 439

The Chairman said that the hon. Gentleman was now moving the same Amendt. in a different form; that it was the substance of the Amendt. that he objected to, as it proposed to extend the scope of the original Act to the Indian Army by an Amendt. of the Annual Mutiny Bill, and that can only be done by a separate Bill Mar 28, 440

The Late Speaker

The Chairman asked the hon. Member to name a co-teller: there being none, he declared that the Ayes had it April 23, 1505

Supply—Navy Estimates, 1895-96

The Chairman, interposing, pointed out that this did not arise on the Amendt. which had been moved, and which was entirely confined to engines and boilers April 29 [33] 86

Financial Statement, 1895-96

The Chairman said nothing about a general discussion. He was only pointing out to the hon. Member that it was not in Order to go into detail on the point he was discussing, as he understood that the two Resolutions with regard to beer stood over for the present May 2, 352

Naval Works Bill

The Chairman said that the first new clause—"Further application to Parliament"—standing in the name of the noble Lord the Member for Ealing, was out of Order May 3, 423

Established Church (Wales) Bill

The Chairman said that he could not say that the hon. Member was out of Order, but at the same time he thought that the observations were rather irrelevant to the question before the Committee May 6, 589

The Chairman observed that there was an Amendt. by the hon. Member for Leominster proposing that Radnorshire and Monmouthshire should also be excepted. If a Division were taken on the Amendt. of the hon. Member for South Shropshire, the Amendt. of the hon. Member for Leominster would be excluded. He suggested that the latter hon. Member should confine his Amendt. to Radnorshire May 7, 642

The Chairman, on being informed that two Members had been unable to record their votes, summoned the Tellers for the Aye Lobby to the Table, and told them that it had been stated that the Clerks left the desk and the Tellers in the Aye Lobby before all the Members had passed out, and consequently two votes were not counted. On it being stated that the Lobby was empty when the Tellers left, and it being ascertained that the two hon. Members were not counted, the Chairman, under the special circumstances, directed the Clerk to add the names of those two hon. Gentlemen to the numbers of the Ayes May 7, 658, 659

The Chairman said that he must remind the hon. Member that no question of compensation arose here. The only question before the Committee was that which related to the preservation of the rights of lay patrons May 13, 1087

The Chairman pointed out to the hon. Member that he was going very wide indeed of the subject-matter of the Amendt. May 13, 1097

The Chairman said that the hon. and learned Member was clearly out of Order in discussing the subject of private benefactions upon this clause May 14, 1207

The Chairman maintained that so long as the hon. Member confined himself to the clause, he would be in Order; but that the point he raised with regard to the Irish Marriage Law did not seem to apply to this particular Amendt. May 14, 1209

The Chairman said that the hon. Baronet could not now discuss subsequent clauses May 14, 1220

The Chairman calling Order, Order, showed that the hon. Member was now going beyond the limits of his Amendt. The question was solely with regard to the dissolution of those corporations May 14, 1223

The Chairman said that, as the sub-section was in the Bill when it was read a second time, and committed to this Committee, it was in Order, and if it did not come within the title of the Bill, the title could be amended. A clause already in the Bill was in a different category from an Amendt. going beyond the scope of the Bill May 20, 1628

The Chairman said that he had ruled that point more than once as having nothing to do with the Bill. This was a Bill for the Disestablishment and Disendowment of the Church of Wales May 20, 1668

The Chairman said the hon. Member must confine himself to the question that the clause stand part of the Bill, and must take the clause as it is May 21, 1784

Ways and Means—(The Budget)

The Chairman: All abstract Resolutions are out of Order in Committee of Ways and Means. I am acquainted with the precedent to which the right hon. Gentleman refers. It did not concern a Resolution in Committee of Ways and Means. The application of that precedent must, moreover, be confined to the special circumstances under which it was allowed, and I would add that it has always been regarded as a very doubtful precedent May 10, 919

Established Church (Wales) Bill

The Chairman said that the words to which the right hon. Gentleman had called attention were in the Bill at the time when it was read a second time and committed by the House to this Committee. It was too late to take any objection; if necessary the Bill could be considered in Committee May 27 [34] 387

The Chairman said that after the explanation which had been given this appeared now to be a merely drafting Amendt., and he would therefore allow it to be put June 17, 1276

The Chairman, interposing, expressed the opinion that the hon. Member was wandering beyond the Amendt. The question was—What was to be done with the tithes? June 20, 1563

Supply

The Chairman said that it was not for him to point out to the hon. Member when he should introduce Motions. He only dealt with Motions when made, and the hon. Member was entirely out of Order May 30, 669

The Chairman held that any attempt to reduce the Lord Chancellor's salary in respect of any duties performed as Lord Chancellor would be entirely out of Order. This Vote merely dealt with his salary as Speaker of the House of Lords May 30, 681

The Chairman was sorry he could not say the remarks of the hon. Member were out of Order, but he sincerely trusted the hon. Gentleman would not pursue his present line of argument May 30, 684

The Chairman said he must point out that an Amendt. was moved and withdrawn. Vote 1 having been passed, he called upon the hon. Gentleman who was now in possession. The ground on which he ruled in favour of the hon. Gentleman was that he was in possession of the Committee. If notice had been given to him before he left the Chair that anyone wanted to move an Amendt. to one of the earlier Votes he should not have called on the hon. Gentleman. The rule was that when an hon. Member is in possession of the House he has a right to proceed unless he is willing to give way May 30, 687

The Chairman said it was not a question of Order. It was a question for the House to decide. If, after the Division was over, the House thought it proper to order any Votes to be struck off, that was another matter June 13, 1142

The Chairman said there was no objection to the Tellers going back to tell others who may not have come through the Lobby June 14, 1202

The Chairman said that any question relating to Cordite ought to be discussed on Vote 9—that for Warlike Stores; but that any question of maladministration would, of course, be rightly brought forward on this Vote. All he wished to say was that if the hon. Member was going into details as to the stores of ammunition such details would be more in Order on the Vote for Warlike Stores June 21, 1686

North British Railway Bill

The Chairman said that he was Chairman of the Unopposed Bill Committee before whom the Bill had come. The Bill came before them in the ordinary way as an unopposed Bill. It appeared to him that it was too late to take an objection of this character on the Third Reading of the Bill, and he thought that the House ought not to consent to the Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate. He thought it his duty to say this much in defence of the action of the Committee. He did not know whether, if the Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate were carried, it would entail the loss of the Bill; but he thought that the position of the promoters would be very seriously damnified if the Motion were agreed to June 25 [35] 11

(Rulings as Chairman of Committees)

Scotch Law Charges

The hon. Member was requested to confine himself to the question before the Committee Mar 7 [31] 627

The hon. and learned Member need not assume that imputations have been made, and he had better confine himself to the question Mar 7, 630

Public Education in England and Wales

The hon. Member must confine himself to annual grants for the day schools and day scholars. The general policy and administration of the Department will not come under the Vote Mar 7, 638

The hon. Member was going into questions beyond the Vote, and the policy and administration were not under discussion. The Supplementary Estimate was due to an under estimate of average attendance and of the rate of grant payable thereon Mar 7, 639

The hon. Member was requested not to continue that line of argument Mar 7, 640

The Question is,—That Progress be reported Mar 7, 641

The Chairman thought there was a broad distinction between an Ordinary and a Supplementary Estimate. As a rule, unless a Supplementary Estimate was of an extraordinary or extravagant character, the general discussion of policy should be confined to the first and main Vote. The present Supplementary Estimate was not of such a character, and accordingly it seemed to him a general discussion of policy would be entirely out of Order Mar 7, 643

The Chairman said that if the right hon. Gentleman would proceed with his argument on the subject, he would endeavour to put him right if he exceeded the ruling he had given. But declined to give any further explanation Mar 7, 644

Questions

The hon. Member who makes a statement in his Question should vouch for it being one of fact Feb 8 [30] 299

The Question was not in Order, as it discussed what was in favour of the prisoner or not Feb 14, 719

Under the Rules of the House, a Member was responsible for the statements set forth in the Question Feb 14, 756

In nearly all cases where a Question handed to the clerks at the Table is irregular, immediate notice is given to the hon. Member Mar 1 [31] 165

If the House should wish it, care would be taken not to allow Ministers to curtail their journeys to and from the Bar Mar 1, 166

There being no truth in the rumour referred to, an hon. Member is hardly justified in putting further questions Mar 7, 572

The hon. Member had better omit that part of the Question which presumes that barbarous outrages have been committed Mar 21, 1562

While this is no doubt a personal matter, it hardly comes within the denomination of a personal explanation. The hon. Gentleman will take his own course as to what he intends to do, but this is hardly a matter which comes within the category of a personal explanation April 5 [32] 1032

Rules and Order of Debate

A Bill involving Imperial interests, and repealing Acts of vast magnitude, ought not to be proceeded with as a Private Bill, and it ought to be introduced as a Public Bill Feb 14 [30] 709, 710

A Member who had placed on the Paper a Notice of Opposition to the Second Reading of a Bill, because the Bill was read 2° in his absence, cannot raise a Question of Order Feb 20, 1189

The Ruling to which the hon. Member referred was inapplicable to the present Motion, viz., the Adjournment of the House for discussing a definite matter of Urgent Public Importance, as it is an alleged grievance requiring instant remedy—(Indian Cotton Duties) Feb 21, 1285

The Question as to whether the hon. Member had voted in the previous night's Division, was now asked too late; but the general rule is, that Members who have heard the Question put, either the first or second time, ought to go in the Lobby and vote. It is not possible for the House to maintain that a Member shall be forced to vote, and there are means of escape which are known to Members Feb 22, 1415, 1416, 1417

The hon. Member's Motion comes within the Rule against forestalling the discussion on Bills, and is, therefore, out of Order Feb 22, 1439

There was no objection to a Member leaving his card upon his seat, instead of his hat, to secure that seat for the whole of the Sittings Feb 26, 1571

Question before the House was, whether the Second Reading of this Bill should be deferred or now taken Feb 28 [31] 5

Seeing that the Motion to refer the Bill to a Standing Committee had been made without notice, or had been discussed for so short a time, the Closure Motion ought not to be put Mar 13, 1021

Reminded the House that on the 11th of March the order for resuming the adjourned Debate on the Question that the Bill be committed to the Standing Committee on Law had been read and discharged, and that consequently the Bill was now in the position of a Bill which had been read a second time without any Motion being made to refer it to a Standing or Select Committee. He had, therefore, to call upon the hon. Member in charge of the Bill to fix a day for Committee Mar 14, 1140

Order being for the resumption of the Debate on the Motion for committing the Bill to a Standing Committee, a motion to withdraw the Bill could not then be entertained Mar 15, 1244

The hon. Member had already exhausted his rights of Speech on the Motion Mar 21, 1664

Hon. Members were alluding to the fact that the hon. Gentleman was reading from a newspaper. It would be as well if the hon. Gentleman compressed the newspaper into as small a compass as possible Mar 25 [32] 125

The object to be aimed at seemed to be to give the Committee latitude, and, therefore, perhaps the case would be met by inserting "a Clause or Clauses" Mar 27, 266

The Motion was placed in the hands of the Clerk, and he put it in the ordinary way from the Chair Mar 27, 268

An hon. Member objected, but that could not be done, because the Bill was by order April 2, 704

The particulars into which the hon. Member is now entering are outside the Bill, and are not relative to the immediate issue. There is nothing in the Bill with reference to the hours of labour, and I do not think the hon. Member can cite particular instances as a reason for punishing a company when they come to this House to ask for further powers April 2, 705

If the hon. Member has agreed with the promoters of this Bill that the Third Reading should be postponed until after Easter it is competent for that arrangement to be come to; but I do not think it would be competent for the hon. Member upon the London and North Western Railway Bill, or upon any particular railway Bill, to raise the general question of the policy pursued by a railway company. That has been ruled out of Order before, and I should rule it out of Order in the case of a Bill introduced at the time of Private Business. Of course, if the hon. Member wishes the Bill put off and objects to it, it must be put off from to-day, and, by arrangement, it can be put off until some future day which the hon. and learned Member may agree upon with the promoters. Perhaps if it were put off until Monday some arrangement might be come to with the promoters to have the Third Reading at a later period April 5, 1023

Questions

The hon. Gentleman is exceeding the limits, and should give notice of that Question in the ordinary way April 23 [32] 1502

I understand that there was a small alteration made with the consent of the Minister concerned, I believe it is not unusual for that course to be taken with the consent of the Minister May 6 [33] 534

I understand the hon. Member does not mean to correct a report, but to correct a statement that has gone forth imputing conduct to a Member of the other House which is denied, and to make a statement with reference to that May 9, 821

I understand from the hon. Member that a mistake has been made in the printing of the Paper, the Motion in question being put down as a substantive Motion, whereas it should have appeared as an Amendment on going into Committee of Supply.

The matter will be put right in the evening paper if no substantial objection is taken May 10, 917

It is not a question of Order, but, at the same time, there is no objection to my stating what, indeed, is obvious—that there is a very grave duty, of course, imposed on every hon. Member in introducing Strangers within the walls of the House, to take care not to introduce any person who, he has reason to believe, is likely to be guilty of any disorderly conduct May 10, 917

The hon. Member has asked a question and received an answer May 16, 1341

The Question which the hon. and learned Member handed in merely dealt with a matter of opinion. With regard to the Question on the Paper, it was understood that the hon. and learned Member desired to ask a question as to whether any action would be taken with regard to the conduct of this Magistrate by the Lord Chancellor, as being the only person competent to take action May 24 [34] 241

The Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs referred to part of an answer which he was going to give to the hon. Member; and it is out of Question No. 19 that the further question of the hon. Member arises June 11, 872

The hon. Member has already asked that Question of one Minister, who has declined to answer; he cannot ask it of another Minister June 20, 1547

Rules and Order of Debate

The hon. Member is not entitled to do more than ask for the authorities April 24 [32] 1591

It would be better if the hon. Member discontinued to read extracts at much greater length, as there is only a short time left, which could not be profitably employed on any other measure April 24, 1594

The hon. Member proposes to object to the Third Reading of this Bill on the ground that the railway company have adopted a certain policy as regards the non-employment of what the hon. Gentleman describes as monoglot Welsh platelayers. That would be a course that would be out of Order on a Bill of this kind and at this hour. The time devoted to Private Business should be consumed solely with those matters which are relevant to Private Business. The conditions of employment is a matter of general policy not confined to a single railway company; it does not affect the making of this particular line; it does not affect the particular locality or the particular public for whom the line is to be made; it is a question of policy which refers to all railway companies, at least, in all parts of Wales. It should be applicable not to any one company only, but to all companies working railways in any part of the country. Under these circumstances the course of argument which the hon. Member is adopting is out of Order on this occasion April 25, 1606

Although the Amendment stands on the Paper it will not be in Order; it is quite foreign to the subject-matter of the Motion April 26, 1753

The hon. Gentleman is entitled to make an explanation if the hon. Member who is speaking gives way to him April 26, 1777

Of course there can be no objection to the Motions standing over for the reasons the hon. Gentleman has given, but the proposed Amendment of the Standing Order cannot be moved at the time of private business. The proposed Amendment is not one which deals with the subject-matter of private Bills. It proposes that the words "whether there is any special circumstance, in regard to the conduct of the company promoting the Bill, etc., which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that the House should be informed of," should be added to the Standing Order No. 157. I am quite aware that there is another Amendment proposed, but that is really consequential upon this one. No doubt it is the practice of the House that the Standing Orders relating to private business may be dealt with at the time of private business. But Amendments to those Standing Orders, if they are to be taken at this time, must relate directly to the subject-matter of private Bills, and not to the general conduct of the companies who promote the Bills. What the hon. and learned Member proposes appears to me to deal simply with general questions relating to the conduct of railway companies, and not to the conduct of railway companies in their character of promoters of any private Bills, and therefore I think it would be contrary to the practice of the House to allow the Amendments to be moved at the time of private business. Whatever alterations may be made in the Standing Orders with reference to these questions cannot, in my opinion, be brought forward at this time April 30 [33] 116

The words of the Order are, "Whether any Report from any Public Department in regard to the Bill, or the objects thereof, has been referred by the House to the Committee." The Amendment says, "Whether the Board of Trade has brought any special circumstance to the notice of the Committee;" and that is followed by the suggestion of the special circumstances regarding the matters which I say are public, and general questions such as should be brought to the notice of the House at the time of public and not of private business. That is the reason I say that the two Amendments hang together. If the hon. Member wishes to make an Amendment for the purpose which he says he has in view, his object would be attained by simply adding the words "or communication" after the word "report" in the Standing Order April 30, 118

The hon. Member is not entitled to reflect upon the conduct of Her Majesty's Judges May 1, 250

The Naval Works Bill is founded on a Resolution of the Committee of Ways and Means, placing £1,000,000 for certain specific purposes to the use of the Royal Navy. The three instructions are out of order, as they all require part of the £1,000,000 expended for some purpose, outside of that for which it was voted May 3, 400

The word "side" does not occur in the Standing Order, and if used could only refer to the sides of the question, and not to the side of the House May 6, 537

The hon. Member is not entitled to discuss the propriety of endowments, either of the Church or other denominations. The question before the House is the separation of the Bill into two parts May 6, 543

I do not think that the noble Lord has made any reflection upon the Chair. He has merely referred to the great magnitude of the task before the House, and suggested the desirability of its being divided into two parts May 6, 546

If the hon. Member had made a personal imputation of that kind on any hon. Member sitting in this House it would be out of Order. I do not understand the hon. Member to do that, but to suggest that such results might possibly and probably arise in the future under a certain state of things, from the action, not of particular Members of the House, but of the Party generally May 8, 729

The hon. Gentleman is not entitled to go into the correspondence on a subject which has been ruled out of order on the ground that it was not relevant to the question before the House. The hon. Gentleman must confine himself to matters that are relevant May 9, 781

The hon. Member has already spoken. The main question is now before the House, and the hon. Member spoke to that on the last occasion that the Bill was before the House May 9, 782

The hon. Member is I think mistaken. When the Bill was called upon for Third Reading the hon. Member rose and spoke. In the course of his speech, no doubt, he moved the Adjournment, but that was speaking on the main question May 9, 782

I think I cannot accept the Motion in that form. It would be impossible to know what was committed to the care of the Committee if the words of the Motion were that it should be recommitted in respect of the clauses relating to North Wales. There might be considerable dispute as to what clauses did relate to North Wales. I think, moreover, to be in form the Motion should be to recommit the Bill to the former Committee May 9, 782

It is a matter for the House to decide after recommittal. It is, I understand, the practice of the House, if there is to be any alteration of that kind, to direct that the Bill must be recommitted May 9, 783

The hon. Member must not proceed to refute charges which have not been raised in Debate May 9, 787

The hon. Member is not entitled to discuss all the Scotch Bills introduced by the Government, except so far as they bear upon this subject May 9, 872

The late Mr. Speaker had ruled on more than one occasion that no objection could be allowed to a Return which appeared on the Paper as unopposed, and that therefore he must follow that ruling May 9, 895

If the alteration were one which exaggerated, if I may so say, the Motion set down, it would not be in Order without further notice, but as it appears to me to be one to modify the stringency of the Motion which is set down, then it may be brought forward. As regards the point of Order raised by the right hon. Gentleman, I am not aware of any precedent for a Motion of this kind for an inquiry into the relations between a corporation or private firm and its servants, and in the form in which it was proposed to be moved certainly grave inconveniences might have followed from a decision of this House upon an entirely ex parte statement against a company which might or might not be represented formally or informally in the discussion. But in the form in which it is proposed to be moved I am not able to say that it is within my function as Speaker to rule that it is out of Order. There may be great inconvenience in a Motion relating to the matters referred to, but I do not see, in the absence of any precedent for striking out such a Motion, that I should be justified in saying that it was out of Order May 10, 962

The right of the noble Lord to vote is a question for the House itself, not for me.

But I think it is right I should point out to the House that, although many cases have occurred of Members standing in the position in which the noble Lord is at this moment, there is not an instance on record, as far as I am able to discover, of such a claim being made as that made by the noble Lord to sit and vote in this House. Under these circumstances I must ask the noble Lord to withdraw below the Bar until the question of his right to sit and vote has been decided by the House May 13, 1058

I beg to remind the right hon. Gentleman that there is no Motion before the House, and that notice has been given of the kind of Motion that will be proposed, and when the Motion is made there will be an opportunity of discussing the terms of the reference. The right hon. Gentleman can speak only by the indulgence of the House May 13, 1066

I think that it would be better that the hon. Member should postpone his remarks until the Motion is upon the paper, as they might lead to a general discussion on the subject May 13, 1067

I do not know what the purpose of this Bill is, but I presume that it is not a Bill which deals with the question of fares May 16, 1308

The hon. Member must speak to the question before the House, which is the Second Reading of this Bill May 16, 1373

I think the hon. Gentleman is not in Order in criticising the mode in which the Finance Act, in regard to the Death Duties, is administered May 16, 1376

The hon. Gentleman's remarks are rather remote from questions of finance May 16, 1383.

I understand that my predecessor always ruled that such a Motion, made by an hon. Member whose name is on the Bill, could not be objected to May 16, 1428

Horses could hardly be included in "the terms and conditions of employment in the Post Office" May 17, 1482

The hon. Member is entitled to raise the question of rates in so far as it relates to the undertaking which the Company by the Bill proposes to take over May 20, 1570

I have looked at the Notice of Motion which the hon. Gentleman has handed to me. I do not think it is one which comes within the terms of the Standing Order XVII. That Standing Order provides that the Motion must relate to a definite matter of urgent public importance. Of course the employment of sailors and their treatment are matters of great public importance, but whether in the shape in which they are set out in this Motion they are urgent within the meaning of the rule may be a matter of doubt.

I am clearly of opinion, however, that this is not a definite matter, which it is essential it should be, in order to bring the Motion within the rules. It would involve inquiry by the House into the conditions of employment of Lascar seamen on board British ships; it would mean inquiry into their treatment in a vast number of cases, and it would be impossible for the House on such a Motion to discuss the details of alleged infringements of the Merchant Shipping Act by shipping companies in failing to provide Lascar seamen with the proper special accommodation provided by the Statute. These are matters entirely of detail, and I think the Standing Order intended that the matter to be discussed should be a definite matter, and that it was not intended to include such matters as this. Therefore I deem it to be my duty not to submit the Motion to the House. As to whether the infringement of an Act of Parliament is a definite matter of urgent public importance or not would depend upon the particular case put before me. What is put before me here is the general infringement of an Act of Parliament by shipping companies in general May 20, 1614

I have not had my attention drawn to the Bill, but I am told by the Clerk at the Table that it does not contain any reference to Imperial taxation, except in a clause in italics May 22 [34] 7

It was true that the Land Tax and the Estate Duty were not taxes which were levied by virtue of the Finance Bill, but there was a long series of precedents which showed that in Customs and Inland Revenue Bills reductions of taxes which were not levied actually by virtue of the Bill might be proposed in Committee on the Bill. The Bill, it was to be observed, was founded on Resolutions in Committee of Ways and Means, one of which contained the words: "It is expedient to amend the law relating to Customs and Inland Revenue." The presence of those words had been held to cover general Amendments to the Finance Bill. The two Instructions were out of Order, because unnecessary May 23, 127

To take the Third Reading of a Bill immediately after Committee has been a very general practice, unless there has been some special reason why it should not be disposed of. It is a question for the general sense of the House May 23, 190

An hon. Member might take advantage of the Motion for Adjournment to bring a matter of importance before the House; but it was not usual on such occasions to make a speech of any great length May 23, 193

Having regard to the nature of the Questions on the Paper, and the fact that all of them can, and probably will, be discussed in the course of the Estimates, when Divisions can be taken, as is not the case now, I accept the Motion May 24, 277

The hon. Member had, by seconding the Amendment, exhausted his right to speak May 27, 347

The Question under discussion was the Adjournment of the House until Thursday, and not the practice of the House in permitting private Members to make the Motion May 28, 475

I must point out to the hon. Member that this is not a Government Measure, and is not a Bill for which the right hon. Gentleman the Chief Secretary for Ireland is personally responsible. The House has been informed by a Minister that he is here to represent the Government, and to state the views of the Chief Secretary. Inasmuch as the hon. Member who has moved the Adjournment of the Debate has done so on the ground of the absence of the right hon. Gentleman, I think, under the circumstances, that the Motion for Adjournment is an abuse of the Rules of the House, and therefore I cannot accept it May 29, 548

The Instruction standing upon the Paper in the name of the hon. Baronet the Member for North-east Manchester is not in Order. The Bill is one for giving greater protection to those employed in industrial employments involving risks; and to expand by Instruction the operation of the Bill to all cases of sudden death without reference to risk of employment of any kind would be going quite outside anything relevant to the Bill June 10, 774

It was competent for the House to negative the Amendment, objection being taken to the withdrawal; but I understood that the challenge which was at first given was not insisted upon, and that the objection to the Amendment being withdrawn was dropped June 10, 812

The hon. Member is not entitled to state of another Member that he said something which he did not believe to be true of another Member. The hon. Member must withdraw that expression June 10, 828

If the question which was before the House (viz., that the words now proposed to be left out stand part of the Bill) were answered in the negative, then the Motion of the hon. Member for Armagh would become the substantive Motion, and it would be competent for any hon. Member then to move an Amendment June 12, 999

I was not aware until this moment that the clause that has been discussed, with reference to the re-committal of the Bill, was the same Clause 24 with regard to which there is a Motion on the Paper. I therefore think that it would be more convenient if the discussion were continued on the Motion to leave out Clause 24 June 13, 1028

This is an entirely formal proceeding, and it does not advance the Bill one jot. It is not, therefore, open to objection. It is entirely for the convenience of the House, and it is necessary that the Bill pass through Committee pro formâ in order that the Bill may be reprinted with the Amendments. It has been held on a former occasion that such a matter is not open to objection June 13, 1143

The hon. Member cannot continue the Debate now that the hour of interruption has come. I have put the question for the Second Reading of the Bill, and it can be taken if the House desires; but there can be no Debate on an opposed Motion June 14, 1236

Of course the hon. Gentleman who had given notice of his intention to move a reduction of the Vote will be entitled to make his Motion, but the hon. Gentleman who first catches my eye has the right to speak first June 17, 1340

I am not aware of any rule which precludes an hon. Member from voting because a a charge has been made against him June 19, 1510

I see no objection to the Directors voting, June 25 [35] 12

I would remind the right hon. Gentleman that a Commission has been fixed for to-morrow June 26, 16

The hon. Member is clearly not in Order in discussing the action of the House of Lords; and I intended to interfere when it was quite clear that he proposed to take such a course July 6, 296

The hon. Gentleman will not be in Order in discussing the action of the House of Lords under the guise of discussing the action of certain Members of the Government in the House of Lords July 6, 296

The hon. Member is only entitled to discuss the point of Order raised July 6, 297

I think that the hon. Member is clearly discussing the action of the House of Lords; and he cannot properly do that, directly or indirectly, upon this Bill July 6, 297

The hon. Member is discussing the details of a Bill which is not before the House. He must confine himself to discussing the action of the Government upon the Appropriation Bill July 6, 297

This is a subject which would be proper to raise in a discussion on the Municipal Franchise Bill, but is not proper upon the present Bill July 6, 297

The hon. Member rose to discuss the conduct of the Education Department, but he must not travel outside that July 6, 298

I think the hon. Member is hardly criticising the conduct of the Education Department; he is rather suggesting legislation July 6, 299
